LILY HAIR OIL

HAIR FALLING OUT. FOR SALE BY

C. W. MACFARLANE.

Sole Agent, Honolulu, Neat pamphlet free on application. P. O. Box 292, Telephone 26.

Henouter, April 21, 1895.

Mr. C. W. Macrarlane:—It affords me pleasure to recommend, to any one whose hat: is falling out, the use of DR. POTTIE'S HAIROIL. My hair was coming out at such a rate as led me to believe that I would soon become bald. After using the oil for five weeks this ceased entirely; none whatever is now falling out. I consider it the best and only worthy remedy for this trouble so recommend it as a stimulant to new growth.

The American Negro. The typical negro tenant arrives at a new home in a nucle wagen or ox cart with a bundle of rags, a frying pan and a sover of children, and he stays with a landlerd who may have seved him from destitution by advancing provisions and dry goods only so long as the caprice of the bour dictates. Landown-ers who have sunk juto financial ruin by mortgaging their property have nearly always been dragged into the slengh by the effort to help their negroes out of it. The crep made by the average negre farmer is subject to many contingencies besides those of the weather. He does not hesitate to leave his field at the most critical season if pleasure calls him. "Big meetings" he never can re rist, and these take place during the important agricultural mouths of July and August, first at one church and then at

After the mules have been working hard all the week in this busy season they are often driven from 10 to 15 miles on Sundays, carrying wagen loads of men, women and children, long bright ribbons flying out from the heads of the female members of the family, whose hair has been tightly plaited and bound with cords during the week in order to produce a holiday sensation in an ample psyche knot at the back and a bushellike roundness in front. They appear in fancy waists and big sleeves and regale themselves and their friends with a dinner of fried chicken, cake and watermelons after the meeting. rags being good enough to wear, hoecake and bacon being good enough to eat, dur-ing the week. Like his African ancestors, the American negro is miserable without jollifications and feastings. If he can have them, he will do a hard job of work between times .- Francis Albert Doughty in Lippincott's.

Why people come long distances to buy at the Palama Grocery. Reason No. 1-Because one customer tells another how much they saved by dealing at this live and let live establishment. Reason No. 2-Because the saving from their grocery bill helps them to pay their house rent. If you don't believe what our customers say, just give us a call and be con-HARRY CANNON,
